

REDDI CORPS

First, let me thank you for your interest in Spiegel & Utrera's products and services, specifically, Reddi Corps (Shelf Corporations).

Our goal at Spiegel & Utrera, P.A. is to be the "Value Leader", providing our clients with high quality business legal services at the lowest possible price. We work hard every day to fulfill this goal, pushing the common boundaries of value, day after day, for you, our client. We hope you find this literature informative and useful.

What is a Reddi Corp? A Reddi Corp is a corporation that has already been established and is recorded with the Secretary of State of the state in which it is incorporated.

Spiegel & Utrera, P.A. has been establishing and selling Reddi Corps for many years and has hundreds of satisfied clients that have used this service to their advantage.

We currently have Reddi Corps that were incorporated as far back as 1995 in inventory. These corporations are also considered "anonymous", meaning there are no Shareholders, Directors, or Officers listed with the Division of Corporations. Anonymity can be a major benefit of forming a corporation.

Furthermore, you can have all your corporate documents today! You can actually walk into any Spiegel & Utrera, P.A. office and, the same day, walk out with a corporation that has been in existence for many months or even years. These corporations have never conducted business and are sold free and clear of any liabilities.

The reasons for buying an aged corporation are numerous and vary greatly. To discuss how this arrangement will benefit you specifically, call the Spiegel & Utrera, P.A. office nearest you!

A complete list of the names and dates of incorporation of our Reddi Corps is available at any Spiegel & Utrera, P.A. office.
