Operating Agreement

If your Company has more than one owner, we strongly recommend you enter into an Operating Agreement. This agreement is entered into by the Owners to define their duties and responsibilities to each other and to the Company. It is like a partnership agreement between the Owners. A draft of this agreement will be prepared as part of our service, so you may review the Agreement and make changes and discuss it with one of our Attorneys. Normally, the fee to prepare such a comprehensive agreement of this nature would be $1,500 or more.

However, your cost of the Operating Agreement is only $99.95 for a single member LLC or $149.95 for a multi member LLC if prepared in conjunction with the formation of your LLC.

Just look at its many provisions:

- Provides a framework for the settlement of disputes between owners.
- Prevents an owner from transferring the owner's Membership Interest to a third party without first offering it to existing owners.
- Provides a framework for the purchase and transfer of an ownership interest in the Company by the remaining Members in the event a Member dies, or becomes disabled.
- Prevents an owner from competing against the Company both now and as an ex-owner for a stated period of time.
- Requires owners to maintain the confidentiality of all customer names and other Company records.
- Prevents an owner from impairing the goodwill of the Company.
- Prevents an owner from soliciting customers of the Company except for the Company's business.

Obviously, this is a very thorough Contract. It is drafted by our attorneys and used by business owners such as yourself. This agreement is very versatile and an absolute necessity for a company with multiple owners. Remember the old adage, "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

Once your Limited Liability Company order is received, one of our attorneys will contact you directly to discuss any further questions you may have.

taxed as a partnership, then we would recommend that you consider adding another member, it could be a parent, a sibling, a child, or perhaps by forming another corporation to be the other member. The other member could have a very small percentage of ownership interest in the LLC and you could limit their ability to vote, it is therefore also important to prepare and enter into an Operating Agreement between the members, and LLC to clearly spell out all the terms and conditions between the members and the LLC.

Dual Class LLC

The Spiegel & Utrera, P.A. Lawyers Dual Class LLC is designed after IRS proposed regulations which allow an LLC to be deemed a partnership for Federal Income Tax purposes to have members/owners qualified as limited partners for Self Employment ("SE") tax purposes. The use by Spiegel & Utrera, P.A. of a Dual Class LLC ownership to distinguish between a manager and a non-manager class of ownership is used to allow the non-manager membership class to be treated as a limited partner class. More importantly, the Spiegel & Utrera, P.A. Dual Class LLC is structured to admit both active management providing members in addition to more passive, capital contributing members. For those LLC members who could qualify as both, they would own a portion of each class of the Spiegel & Utrera, P.A. Dual Class LLC.

The Spiegel & Utrera, P.A. Dual Class LLC is divided as follows:

Class A General Member Units: The smaller manager class receives a priority preferred return of income (for example, a management or sales fee arrangement) that is contingent on the profitability of the LLC. It may not be a fixed compensation amount or it will constitute a guaranteed amount which is prohibited.

Class B Limited Member Units: This portion of the LLC membership interests is the cash contributing members' interest and is structured as a non-manager class qualifying for limited partner status. This class receives a cumulative preferred-priority return of profits based on their unreturned capital contributions, whereas the smaller active manager class would not.

The cost of adding the additional features required of the Spiegel & Utrera Dual Class LLC is just $300 if ordered at the time of forming your LLC and, as an added bonus, it includes the required Dual LLC Operating Agreement.

Special Purpose Limited Liability Company for Self-Directed IRA Account

The strategy for using a Spiegel & Utrera, P.A. Special Purpose LLC for Self-Directed IRA Account involves forming an LLC with the self-directed IRA as an owner (or "member") of the LLC. Funds are transferred to the LLC which, in turn, purchases and holds title to real estate. The creation of a self-directed IRA or IRA LLC enables you to choose what you would like to invest your money in. When you are the manager of an LLC, you have "checkbook control." That means that every time you are going to invest in a new property you don't have to have the custodian approve the transaction.

However, a special purpose LLC formed for a self-directed IRA owner has to comply with the Internal Revenue Code, Employee Retirement Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) and corresponding regulations. Such self-directed IRA owner is solely responsible for avoiding prohibited transactions and should seek the counsel of licensed attorneys and accounting professionals.

For example, if you, your wife and children have an existing LLC in which you are the only owners (e.g., 100% ownership by disqualified persons) then your IRA cannot invest in that LLC. You could, however, create a new LLC and have both your IRA and the existing LLC invest into it as founding members at the same time.

PROTECT YOURSELF!

Lender's Agreement & Promissory Note Generally, members of an LLC must note in their Corporate Records book, their initial capital contributions to determine their membership interest in the Limited Liability Company. We strongly recommend that our clients minimize contributions made into their LLC since the possibility exists that they could be held personally responsible for failure to make that initial capital contribution. One of the ways to put additional money into the LLC and still have a leg up on creditors is to enter into a lender's agreement and promissory note. This allows Owners to designate funds advanced to the company as loans instead of capital contributions. By executing a Lender's Agreement and Promissory Note immediately after organizing, you can allow for initial and future advances of funds to the company and these funds would be considered money owed to the members by the LLC instead of being considered capital contributions. The fee for a Lender's Agreement and Promissory Note at the time of incorporating is only $75.

Indemnification Agreement

We strongly recommend that you include special provisions in your Articles of Organization and Company paperwork which significantly increase the Officers' protection in the Company and which require the Company to indemnify and hold harmless its Officers from any actions they take on behalf of the Company. If an Officer is ever sued for actions taken on behalf of the Company, these provisions hold the Company responsible, as agreed upon by the Members and Officers. Adding these provisions costs only an additional $75. if ordered at the time of Incorporation.

Apostille

A Notarized copy of the Articles of Organization is $ 275. This is usually used to provide proof of Incorporation when doing business with Foreign Countries.

EMPLOYEES / INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS

Employment Agreement

If you are using employees in your business, it is important to have a written Employment Agreement to document the conditions of Employment. An Employment Agreement can be very advantageous for a business and should be required for all employees, whether new or existing. It creates a clear understanding of the arrangement between the employee and the Company and provides protection for the business. The Employment Agreement also contains other important provisions:

- It spells out the terms of employment, such as the duties, responsibilities and compensation of the employee. It states that the employee will not compete against the Company for a specific period of time after leaving its employment.
- It prohibits the employee from disclosing any of the Company's business records, computer data, trade secrets, methods of operation, et cetera.
- It prevents the employee from soliciting customers or clients of the Company.
- It prevents an employee, after leaving the Company's employment, from soliciting the Company's employees.

The Employment Agreement is prepared in such a way that you can use it over and over again to avoid additional costs in the future. By having this Employment Agreement, the Company is given substantial clout in preventing an employee from joining a competitor, or competing against the Company and disclosing business secrets to anyone. The Agreement may be re-used by the Company as it hires additional employees, the cost of the Employment Agreement is just $150.

Independent Contractor Agreement

There are many reasons for using Independent Contractors; however, simply, verbally stating that a worker is an Independent Contractor is not enough according to the IRS. Certain criteria must be met. The IRS considers 11 factors in three specified areas: Behavioral Control, Financial Control and Type of Relationship. So, before you engage the services of an Independent Contractor, it is essential that you document that relationship with a written Independent Contractor's Agreement, otherwise the IRS could hold your Company and you personally liable for the Independent Contractor's Income Tax, Social Security, Medicare Tax and Federal Unemployment Tax, which should have been withheld. As a signatory on the check used to pay the Independent Contractor, you could be held personally liable for these taxes.

The Independent Contractor's Agreement also contains other important provisions:

- It spells out the duties, responsibilities and compensation of the Contractor.
- It states that the Contractor will not compete against the Company for a specific period of time after the project is completed.
- It prohibits the Contractor from disclosing any of the Company's business records, computer data, trade secrets, methods of operation, et cetera.
- It prevents the Contractor from soliciting customers or clients of the Company.
- It prevents the Contractor, after leaving the Company, from stealing the Company's employees.

For a detailed explanation of the Benefits of using Independent Contractor's Agreements, including a breakdown of the 11 factors the IRS analyzes and Industry examples provided by the IRS, please refer to document 239 of this Free Faxback Service. We can provide an Independent Contractor's Agreement that covers all the legal requirements and many business advantages for your Company for only $150.
